The Future of Louisville Louisville has seen her worst. The election of last Monday was an onien of better times. There will be no more disfranchising of legal voters here. The good meu of the American party bave joined with the Democracy to put down all outrages upon the ballot box. The Americans don't think foreigners ought to vote, but so long as the law allows them this privilege they intend to protect them in it. They have resolved to have no more terror, and outrage, and murder, and riot at the ballot box.

We invite all those foreigners who have left us for past outrages, to come back. They will hereafter be protected in their rights as citizens .-Their peaceful homes will be guaranteed to them by good citizens of both political parties. The reigu of bullyism is at an end. Brass knucks and slung shot, and billies, and bludgeons have had the r day. Public opinion has risen in its imperial majesty against the muscular arm, and he brainless head, that has ruled our elections

Property is now cheap in Louisville. Real estate is low and house rent still lower. A store or dwelling can be had here for half the Cincinnati who buys at present, is bound to make money .-Houses and lots must go up. They are bound to Democrats.

The disturbances at the First Ward polls were he last effort of expiring Plug Uglyism. This ying struggle disgusted the American party as such as the Democratic. The thing will be atempted no morc. Our elections hereafter will be niet, decent, peaceful, and lawful. The real hoice of the people will be elected whenever the audidates of different parties come before them. et us all rejoice at this great and good result, or in it is the germ of the future glory and prosperity of our city.

An affray took place on the down train of cars on Friday evening last, between a man by the name of Williams and Mr. Schoolcraft, of this city, in which Schoolcraft struck Williams with a bar of iron, from which he has since died. We nuder stand that Williams was very much intoxicated and was using very obscene language in the pres-ence of some ladies. Schooleraft tried to check him. Williams drew a knife and attempted to stab Schooleraft, when the latter struck him, which has unfortunately resulted in his death.

arrested here last spring on a similar charge. He twenty by the sweating process, on Jas. Emelin. Several witnesses who were introduced stated that accused and his party had passed divers counterfeits on them, though nothing definite was alleged. Emeling testified, that in March last a Southern Bank one dollar bill, raised to a twenty, was passed on him in the sale of a bacon ham. There was nothing further against accused, and he was discharged.

Bridget Earley was presented on the charge as stated by the witness, of being successfully drunk for the past four or five weeks. She says she has been sick, and it was the effect of the medicine, but ball of $100 was required for three months. DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Wm. Porter, Esq., and Frank Ferrell were both presented on the double charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, loating about in the Fifth Ward, and even duct, loating about it the rithin ward, and even getting liquor without paving for it. Porter promised to dry up entirely, and leave town forever, if let off; and the other appeared to be a good sort of hard working fellow, and both were Another Peace Warrant.-Ileury Meyer and wife were up on a peace warrant by Sarah At-wood, a chunky woman, who lives over their eads, and says the one, or both of them, threat-ned to whip her, and another man, she says, said he would whip her, too. It appeared that the wo-men folks get drunk all round, and raise a row with each other, and the men folks only try to keep the peace. The parties were discharged. He testified to holding an quest on the body of deceased the next morninquest on the body of deceased the next moru-ing after he had been shot. He found three gan shot wounds on the body; one of which was about three inches below the left nipple, in the breast.— In the back was a similiar wound, which, he thinks, was the exit of the ball from the front, though a probe could not follow it. By this it would appear that deceased might have been shot in the back as well as the front, though the witness did not say so. He had another wound in the right arm, and a third in the right arm, and a third in the right ankle. The wound in the ankle, he thinks, might have been given by deceased himself, by the discharge of a wagner in his own hand.

the back room, but the door was opened and he got out and the shooting commenced. Harman and Dillon had first entered the collee house, and were drinking when White and others came in, and an altercation took place. White remarking to deceased that he had threatened to whip him, and now was the time to try it. Harman replied that he would fight him to-morrow, but White insisted that each should lay aside their weapons and fight it out. The witness here tried to pacify them, and got deceased into the back room. When he first shots were fired Harman was down be-and the counter, but after that he raised and hred, he shot going up through the ceiling. Harman first entered the coffee house with Dillon and Fisher, after that White and his party came in, and White commenced a quarrel with flarman, as stated before. The firing commenced at the far end of the counter, which is not more than four feet from the door into which Harman had entered.

White had advanced the length of the counter.
Patrick Dillon testified to going with Harman,
the deceased, into the coffee-bouse to drink, and he first thing he took notice was hearing White citement was all over. Witness then interposed to quiet them, stating that Harman was a friend of his, and he didn't want any fuss then. They all took drinks, and witness thought it was all over, but Wm. Badgett said something, and White slapped him in the face, when the finss commenced again, and witness took hold of Harman; got him into the back room, wanting to have been too have been to the period to the control of the said to the said ward, when the first shut was fired, and in half a second several other shots were fired. He had hold of Harman up to the time he went into the back room until he came out again, and neither saw a weapon in his hand, nor felt one about him. As the first shot was fired, Harman stepped to one side, or recled off, the witness not being over four or five feet from Harman, and then he did not see a weapon in his hand, the witness having buse. The witness did not be the first shot was the first shot was the first shot was tired. Harman stepped to one side, or recled off, the witness not being over four or five feet from Harman, and then he did not see a weapon in his hand, the witness having hite at that four or twe feet from Harman, and then he did not see a weapon in his hand, the witness having the impression that the other party had left the house. The witness did not see or recognize White at that time. Harman had told witness while he was holding him, that he entered the house the front way, and was determined to go out as he came in, and if the witness did not let go of him he would shoot his head off. He did ot let go his hold of him, but held on.

Jacob Fisher testified to being outside at the ime, and when Harman went into the back room, the accused (White) rushed out of the front door with a revolver in his hand, and went to the back with a revolver in his hand, and went to the back gate with an evident determination to shoot Harman if he came out the back way. The witness soon saw White come back into the coffee house, and directly the firing commenced. The witness saw White fire the last shot at Harman, but didn't see the first shot. Before that the parties had been fussing and quarrelling. When White went out of the door with the pistol in his hand, the witness didn't hear him say he was going to shoot Harman, but from his previous actions came to Harman, but from his previous actions came to that conclusion.

The city attorney, on the part of the prosecution, here rested the case, stating that he might want the testimony of Squire Marsh, who was not in attendance.

For the defense a large number of witnesses were also sworn, the first of whom, Solomov llines, testified that he, White, and others were in the coffee house drinking, when Harman and Dilon came in. The witness heard an altercation lon came in. The witness heard an attraction, and proposals made to fight, and after that Harman went into a back room and White went out. The witness was engaged in a private conversation with Sam. Mcliugh; heard some shooting or something else, and Saw Mike Ilarman with a pistol in his band, and saw While coming in the shooting. He says he was in company of White and Warner, and went into the coffee house, who they found Harman, and an altercation took place about fighting, the witness being very tight, and accorded the proposition to have the fight next day—a fist fight—the witness thinking there was an old grudge between them. After the firing was allover, the witness saw a pistol, dark handled in Harman's hand. There was nothing white about it. [This distinctly contradicts the statements of Hines, the first witness for the detense. Joseph Warran was next interesting the statements of the statements of warrance was next interesting to the detense.

Joseph Warren was next introduced, first stat-ng that his testimony was the same as Badgett's, revious to the shooting he saw White draw his pristol and lay it on the counter. He didn't see Harman have any pistol, he, the witness, was not in the room when the firing commenced, the doors were all closed, though they had been opened. There was a crowd of one hundred outside. He didn't hear Harman make any threats, and when he was accused of it by White he very decidedly denied it this was your after White he very decidedly denied it this was your after White he very decidedly enied it; this was soon after White entered the

w. fi. fread, watchman, examined narman's pistol on the night of the shooting, it was a small six shooter, with a bright barrel, with four barrels empty. Witness didn't see White at all, but heard he had given himself up, witness had heard street rumor that the grapeshot crowd had treatened to kill White, Jeffrey and Victor on the ection. This is irrelevant, and should have no bearing in the case.

l'arkburst, Cassel, and others had heard that rumors had been circulated after Allen had been murdered, that he, the first wit ness, and others designated, were to be killed. They were to be killed on the day of the election, but the day had passed and none of them killed.

Watchman Bradley testified to seeing the crowd about the coffee house, and saw Harman, the accessed and others, and not liking the looks of the crowd, took Harman to one side and advised him to go away. The witness then went away, but soon after heard of the shooting, and on repairing to the bouse, found the deceased up stairs, wound ed. The witness had heard the threats, and ad vised the parties to look out, and cautioned Jeffrey to keep away from that part of the town, but didn't think it worth while to tell White to keep away.

All the watch had heard the common rumor, that the Grapeshot crowd had threatened the lives of Jellrey, Victor, and White before last Satur day night. The court here adjourned till after

CORNER OF GREEN AND THIRD STREETS. This magnificent structure has so nearly approached completion that a portion of it will be occupied to-day for Government purposes. Mr. Postmaster Ronald will, this morning, deliver letters and papers to their owners from his new quarters, and a notice of the Postoffice and the eutire building will, therefore, be appropriate at this time.

The building was commenced in May, 1853, and t is constructed of stone of a very handsome appearance and superior quality, brought from the neighborhood of Bedford, Ia. It fronts on Green street 113 feet, on Third street 125 feet, and is 83 feet 6 inches in hight above the pavement, composed of three stories: the ceiling of the first being 18 feet high; of the second 25 feet 3 inches. and of the third 22 feet. The west and south sides of the building are surrounded by a court 22 feet wide, which is protected by a substantial brick

A RICH CALIFORNIA WOMAN.—Mrs. Eliza Todd, who owns a ranch a mile below Weaverville, is a remarkable woman. In 1852 she walked from Shasta to Weaverville, and, without money, begaa the business of washing for six dollars a dozen. An acquaintance who lived near her domicil, says thatfor a long time ste was bending over the wash tub at daylight in the morning, at noon, and at 10 o'clock at night. Business prospered, and after a while she bought two claims which turned out well. Then she bought chickens which laid eggs and which she sold at half a dollar a piece; then she bought a pig for $125, and sold its progeny for an ounce, or $25; then bought cows and sold milk. Business still increased, and she began buying real estate, lending money at ten per cent. a month, and speculating in claims; always was sortunate; every touch turned something to gold. Reading Matter on every page. The Last Act in the Plug Ugly Drama.

If there is a decent man in Louisville who was uot sufficiently disgusted with modern Know Nothingism to turn his back upon it forever, in consequence of the outrages in the First Ward last Monday, to say nothing of other parts of the city, let him reflect upon what was done yesterday, and we think he will be satisfied. Thomas Batman has been refused a certificate of election and Wm. K. Thomas offered one, hy a species of knavery that ought to disgrace forever every one connected with it.

The law required that Hon. Edward Garland, W S. D. Megowan and Charles M Thruston, should examine the poll books and give certific cates of election to the successful candidates .-Thruston and Megowan, for reasons not known to us, declined to serve as commissioners. These men being out of the way, left room for tools that could be used. Joseph Clement and Samuel Mattack, two Know Nothing magistrates of the school intense, took their places in the commissioner' board Their plan of operations was made known to Judge Garland, the remaining commissioner, and he promptly refused to act with them upon any such knavish hasis. When Judge Garland lett the board. Clement and Matlack had things their own way, and they fixed up matters as they were never arranged before in this wide world.

The poll books showed that Batman was elected over Thomas by a clear and indisputable majority The work to be done by Clement and Matlack was to overcome this majority. They took hold of the books with the intention of defeating Batman and electing Thomas. Their ingenuity invented the means of doing this, but they concluded that it would be best, at first, to make a tie vote between Batman and Thomas, and they did it. The following is the mauner in which they made

They ruled out of the count of votes all of the Third Ward and the Gilman precinct poll books, except the last page. They then ruled out one page of the poll book of the Second District of the Eighth Ward; one page from the book of the Two Mile House; one page from the book of the First District of the Second Ward; two pages from the Brunerstown hook, and one page from the book of the First District of the First Ward. When these pages were stricken out the vote betweeu Batman and Thomas was pronounced by them to be equal

They made known their decision of the tie vote, and some who heard it then understood why so of late overhauling the poll books through seals and against law. Their tie vote decision, however, did not give entire satisfaction. They abandoned it and held another election. By this last election Clement and Matlack elected Thomas by two votes. What they will do next, the Lord only knows, unless the devil has some knowledge of their designs.

Late last night we received from the Journa office, the head quarters of jail cliquery, a note suggesting that Thomas would decline the office to which Clement and Matlack had elected him by two votes. Later we received for publication a and withdrew his card of declination until to-mor morrow, alleging as a reason, that Vonroe would be sworn in to-morrow, and that Thomas wanted to address his resignation to him instead of to

Now, was there ever such a piece of work done beneath the broad canopy of heaven? Has any noan ever read or heard of auch conduct? 1s: not enough to disgust every decent man, no matter to what party he helongs " If it is not a dose that will turn the stomach of every true American in the city, we shall he greatly mistaken. We do not think that honest Americans can stand such official conduct as this. Matlack and Clement will be remembered when they come before the people for re-election. As to their disgraceful cision, it amounts to nothing. Batman will get his office if he has to go to law for it.

We publish in another column the official vote first made out by Clemeut and Matlack. It will be seen that Batman and Thomas each have 3,225 votes, according to their first report. The old hero of the Thames and New Orleans was the choice of a grateful people, hy a majority of 70 votes, but Clement and Matlack held another election, and gave Thomas as many votes as Bat man received. They then held another election and made Thomas heat him two votes. What say the people who elected Batman, to such proceedings as these?

In times of peace the Atlantic cable will minister to the interests of commerce, manufactures, the arts, and all things that make nations great and individuals useful to society. In times of war it will exert a mighty infinence upon the armies and navies that pour out blood and exhaust treasure. In times of famine and pestilence and national disaster, it will tend to the alleviation of suffering nations as well as individuals. In few words, this great and glorious triumph of art will exert an influence noon the world, which has not been known since the invention of printing, the mariner's compass, and the application of ateam to the movement of machinery upon land and the propelling of vessels upon water. It is a succeasful enterprise, out of which the mightiest results are to come for the good of mankind.

Joe Clement and Sam Matlack held an election esterday, and gave Batman and Thomas each 3,225 votes. Why did they not then determine by lot, as the law provides, which shall have the office? Were they afraid that Batman would get | it. "A word to the wise." the office by lot as he had by the choice of the

The Bogus Returns of Louisville and Jefferson County.

We subjoin the election returns of Louisville and Jefferson county, according to the luminous decision of Justices Clement and Matlack. Disfranchisement of 700 Voters. By the juggling yesterday of a couple of selfstultified commissioners of election, over seven undred legal certified voters in the city of Louisrotes for jailer were declared a tic between Batnan and Thomas. Will the honest voters of Louisville suffer themselves to he disfranchised in this summary manner? Will the people of Louisville submit to such despicable trickery?

The Third Ward is particularly marked out for persecution, it being fully determined that the ree will of the people in that ward shall not be expressed. In the spring election for councilmen, n undoubted majority was given in the Third Ward for the Democrats, but the judges burned the hallots, and declared the Know Nothings elected. Now the ward gives another majority for the Deutscrats, and the entire vote of the ward is nceremoniously thrown out, though duly certified to hy the judges, clerk and sheriff.

The Rejected Poll Books. The following is the law under which Matlack nd Clement are supposed to have acted in the lection they held yesterday in helialf of Thomas and against Batman: Each clerk, in the presence of the judges, shall sign his name at the foot of every page of the poll hook as the election progresses, so that the ame may be identified.

This law does not say that the commissioners hall reject the pages that the clerk has not igned. By what authority did these sapient magistrates reject such pages as did not suit them, and retain such as did suit them? Will they inform us of the law under which they acted? Was it a provision of the Plug Ugly Code?

To the farmers of Shelby county I would say that I am now about leaving the State, and feel it my duly to express to them my sincere thanks for the liberal and generous manner in which they have sustained me in my business. Newest do I expect to forget the people of Shelby. It was through them that I obtained the first merit of reward, as a Plow Maker, and to the editor of the Shelby News I shall always feel indebted. He is a true friend to the mechanic. Long may he live, and may he be sustained by the people of Shelby In his enterprise to the last.

I have sold out to Mr. C. G. Mershon, of this place, who is now manufacturing Flows after my patterns. Mr. Mershon is an energetic man, and one of considerable nerve. He says that he is determined that every job turned out by him shall be as near my patterns as can be made. My father will be with him for several months, consequently the Plows will all undergo his supervision. This beling the case, I would be safe in saying that farmers ordering Plows need not fear, but that they will get a good Plow, and hope that they will give Mr. Mershon a trial.

Ranaway from the subscriber, residing 3 miles east of Elizabethton, Carter county, Tenn., on Boy named NiAS. He is about 5 feet 10 or II inches high, age about 24, weight about 175 or 180 pounds; his upper front teeth show slight marks of decay; had on when he left a deep blue jeans coat, gray mixed jeans pante, with low orowned black hat, and had with him two pair of white domestie pants and a straw colordef frock aummer coat. It is anpposed that said boy left in company with a white girl, of a medium size, dark skin, blue eyes and light hair, rather full featured. She had with her a yellow calteo dress, black figured stripe, and bonnet of the same; a blue small-figured check calculated of the same; and a pink, corded ealico bonnet. It is supposed they are making their way to a free Etate, and will probably pass through Kentucky. The girl has relations living in Lee county, who it is thought have agreed to assist them in getting to Ohio. The girl's uncle, a dark-skinned man, with a large roman nose, will probably be found in their company.

I will give $25 reward for the recovery of the boy, if taken in Oarter county; $30 if taken in the adjoining counties, and $100 if taken outside of the State, and brought back or confined where I may get him.

SUCCESS OF THE ATLANTIC CABLE!

New York, Aug. 5, 12:45, P. M. The Atlautic cable is successfully laid. The steamer Niagara arrived at Triuily Bay yesterday. The cable will he landed to-day The signals work perfectly throughout the cable. SECOND DISPATCH.

TRINITY BAY, Ang. 5.—The Atlantic telegrapeet sailed from Queenstown on Saturday, July 17 and met in mid ocean on the 28th. The cable was spliced at 1 o'clock P. M., on Thursday, the 29th, d the vessels then separated, the Agamemno id Valorous bound to Valencia Island, and the Niagava and Gorgon for this place, where the lat-er arrived yesterday, and this movning the end of the eable will be landed. It is 1,698 nautical, or 950 statute miles from the telegraph house a the head of Valencia Harbor and the telegraph house at the Bay of Bull's Arm, Trinity Bay, and for more than two thirds of this distance the water over two miles in depth.

The cable has been paid from the Agamem at about the same speed as from the Niagara. The electrical signals are sent and received through the whole cable perfectly; the machinery for paying out the cable worked most satisfactorily, and vis not stopped for a single moment. Captain Hudson, of the Niagara, enlogises every one on board. The engineers, electricians, and of cers of the ship, and, in fact, every man on board the telegraph fleet has exerted himself to the ut-most to make the expedition successful, and, by the blessing of Divine Providence, succeeded After the end of the cable has been landed and onneeled with the land line telegraph, and the liagara discharged some eargo belonging to the elegraph company, she will go to St. John oals, and then proceed at once to New York.

KANSAS ELECTION.

Sr. Louis, Aug. 5.—Advices from Leavenworth the 2d, per U. S. express to Boonville on the state that the whole vote in Leavenworth on ne proposition for the admission of Kansas as a tate, was 1,749, of which 189 were for proposiion accepted, and 1,610 for proposition rejected. This is the largest vote ever polled in that city. The election, with the exception of a slight disurbance in the Second Ward, passed off with the utmost propriety and without any notable inci-dent. At Kickapoo precinct there were 90 votes cast for the proposition, and 53 against it. Gen. Harney returned to the fort to-day. Barre's battery will reach the post to-morrow.

From Washington. Washington, Aug. 5.—The New Orleans papers received by mail furnish the following:
The steamship Philadelphia, arrived at New Orleans, reports seeing a barque ashore on the Binini Island bound to New Orleans, name uu-

Galvesion dates to the 24th are published in the New Orleans papers. The Waco Southern-er says that seven bands of Camanche Indians nave combined for the purpose of waging war upon the whites, who are rallying to repel them. The Galveston Civilian says, that from present dications cotton picking will be general through exas by the lst of August. Unless an extraorinary calimity should interfere, the crop will be hy far the largest ever produced in Texas. The estimates for the next year's receipts at this port

The Victoria Advocate says that the weather i favorable for the crops, and splendid for the cotton crop. The corn yield will be more than an average.

Tampico advices to the 19th had been received at New Orleans. The government troops under General Nuramon had triumphed over the insurectionary forces at Queretaro, but were subse-quently defeated. General Puebleta, the consti-utionalist, while retreating from Guanajuato, was attacked by General Lobos Senloaguista, from Celaya, his forces routed, and himself and many thers taken prisoner. I'nebleta was subsequent v summarily executed. There has been an outbreak in the district o

Serra Huasiaca in favor of the constitutionalsis. General Moreno, of Tampico, had left that city with 500 men, to endeavor to suppress it. Previous to starting, he issued a proclamation, of fering an annesty on condition of the surrender f their arms. The steamer of war Guerro was at Tampico, as a means of defence for the harbor. General Vidaurri intended to send from San Luis Potosi 2000 men against Guanajuato, and 4000 were to leave San Luis on the 12th of July for the capital.

General Caranajal was on the road between Tampico and Tuseasesque, cutting off the communication with the interior-

St. Lotis, August 5.-A despatch from St. Joseph, the 2d inst., says that the Salt Lake mail just arrived, brings no important news. Order and quiet have been restored throughout Utah, and the Morusons expressed themselves highly pleased with the Territorial officers. Upon General Johnston's entrance into the city, the few re-maining Mormons fled. Commissioners Powell and McCulloch having completed the duty assign ed them, took free passes to Fort Laranie, en route for home. Johnston has issued a proclama-tion prohibiting soldiers and citizens from disturbing the Mormons or their cattle, nor were an troops allowed to enter the city under any pretext.

THE FRIEND OF MAN.

A San example of the estimation in which it is held by one of the ablest writers, jurists, and writers on law, &c., in this country, we will give a letter received by Prof. DrGaard from John Livingston, Esq., editor of the well-known Monthly Law Magazine, 157 Broadway, New York. A word of such testimony is of more weight among the best classes of the country than volumes from nnknown sources:

from niknown sources:

Girard House, Philadelphia, May 7,1855.

Prof. Charles DeGrath: I freely give it as my opinion that your "Electric Oll" is among the most wonderful remedies of modern times. At the earnest request of a lady who alleged she had been relieved of a most painful affection by its use, I was induced to try a bottle, though at the time of purchasing I fully believed it to be a quack medicine and a catchpenny humbing. But a trial convinces me that It possesses a magic power, and its use will prove a blessing to suffering humanity. trial convinces me that it possesses a magic power, and its use will prove a blessing to suffering humanity. I recently took a cold from sleeping in damp sheets, and my neck became so much swollen and painful that I could not turn my head.

After using, without success, everything prescribed by my physician, I last evening tried your Electric Oit. This morning I am well, the relief having been as complete as It was instataneous.

Yours very truly,

Editor Monthly Law Magazine,

THE FRIEND OF MAN. Final Sale of Lots DURKER, HEATH & CO'S IN KENTUCKY CITY!

On Monday, 27th of September, 1858, ILL commence the second and final Sale of Lots in this growing and most interesting YOUNG CITY.

The Trustees, in announcing this sale, feel warranted n assuring the public that at no point in the West can here be found a better chance for safe and profitable

KENTUCKY CITY is located on the east bank of the Mississippi river, twen-ty miles below the mouth of the Ohio river, at the first eligible highland, and in point of fact, being the mouth of the Ohio river; surrounded by a high, teathby, and for-tile country, rapidly growing in we'd h and population with a salubrious climate, generou, L'zeral and enlight and society. There wanted but o as auther feature to make this the most commanding point on the "great Father to Maters"—this want was an uninterrupted and general outlet to 'he luterior, so as to accommodate the interchange of commodities. That want is now fully met by the established system of RAILROADS.

which has fixed Kentucky City as the center of a network of railroads stretching out and affording connections in all directions with the interior and with the cities and linkes of the North and East, and ramifying throughout the South and West.

That the public may not be led off by suspicions that this is a mere city upon paper, we request you to enquire—to come and see for yourselves.

See the Map—Kentucky City is the northern terminus of the Great Mobile and Ohlo Railroad—460 miles long. See also our railroad connection by Union City and along the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad via Parris and Clurksville to Nashville, 170 miles. Also, by Kenton and slong the Memphis and Ohlo Roal to Memphis, about 160 miles. Also via Jackson, Tenn., Holly Springs, Canton and Jackson, Miss., to New Orleans, 500 miles. Also via Corinth, thence along the Memphis and Charleston Railroad to Tuscumbla, Huntsville, Chattanoga, Knoxville and the East, and with Atlanta and Savannah, Georgia. Also by the Fulton and Texas Railroad via Georgia. Also by the Fulton and Texas Railroad v Little Rock, through to Arkansas and Texas to the P. Also, by the Iron Mountain Railroad to St. Louis, 150

In all Nervous, Rheumaile, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerons instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided over instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was lutended more especially for those of our fatheriand scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Gwnerally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Wheever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.
